

FAI General handbook for Competition Organizers

A Practical Handbook from bidding for a competition to the Awards Ceremony
The Target Population are NACs, ASCs and Competition Organizers

Table of Contents

1. General presentation of FAI and Air Sports

Organization of FAI. General description of our Air Sports. Sporting Codes.
Hyperlinks to : Sporting Codes, By-Laws.

2. Bidding procedures

General procedures. Content of the Bid Document. Basic requirements. Anti-Doping.
Sanction Fees. Registration fees. Sporting Calendar.
Hyperlinks to : ASC specific procedures and requirements.

3. Naming of Competitions

4. Organizer Agreement

Sample agreement. Annexes.

5. Corporate Identity

Graphic Charter. Use of FAI logos, flags and anthem. Appearance of FAI on all documents and material. Merchandising. Rights.

6. FAI Officials

Definitions, duties and responsibilities (Event Director, Judges, Jury members)

7. Safety Officer

Duties and responsibilities

8. Finances

Sample budget

9. Administrative procedures

Invitations to competitors. Registration fees. FAI Sporting Licenses.
Transmission of competition results to FAI.

10. Communication

Information bulletins. Press Releases. Invitations to media. Press conference.
Cooperation with FAI HQ. Accreditations. Internet.

11. Sponsorship

General rules. Types of sponsors. Conditions. Cooperation with FAI. Sponsors' Hospitality.
Advertising.

12. Public relations

Creating an event attractive to the public and media-friendly. Interactive activities.
Information to public.

13. TV Production & Distribution

Types of productions. Way of distribution. Cooperation with FAI HQ. Rights.

14. Education

Examples of educating programs for youth that may be implemented at competitions.

15. Logistics

Transportation. F&B. Environmental aspects. Accommodation. Security.

16. Ceremonies

Requirements and Protocol for Opening Ceremony and Awards Ceremony.

17. Post-competition duties

Transmission of archives. Images & TV Production. Results.